

SABRINA CARPENTER ANNOUNCES HIGHLY ANTICIPATED NEW ALBUM SHORT N' SWEET

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Los Angeles, CA – May 26th, 2024

Global pop phenomenon Sabrina Carpenter has officially announced the release of her highly anticipated new album, Short n' Sweet, arriving June 15th via Island Records. Marking her most confident and self-assured project yet, the album promises a bold blend of vulnerability, playfulness, and signature pop brilliance.

Fresh off the success of her chart-topping singles and a whirlwind year of sold-out shows, Carpenter is ready to showcase a new side of her artistry. Short n' Sweet is set to capture the essence of her evolution—melding honest storytelling with infectious melodies and undeniable charisma.

"This album is a reflection of who I am in this moment—unfiltered, fun, and full of heart," Carpenter shares. "I can't wait for my fans to experience this next chapter with me."

The album announcement comes on the heels of Carpenter's recent breakout successes, including her viral hit Espresso, a standout performance at Coachella Valley Festival, and her growing global influence as both a singer-songwriter and performer.

In addition to the album, fans can expect an accompanying tour, exclusive merchandise, and exciting collaborations. The first single, Please, Please Please, is set to drop June 1st, giving listeners their first taste of Short n' Sweet.
